IMAGINE THERE'S NO HEAVEN.
IT'S EASY IF YOU TRY.
NO HELL BELOW US.
ABOVE US ONLY SKY.

IMAGINE ALL THE PEOPLE LIVING FOR TODAY.

IMAGINE THERE'S NO COUNTRIES.
IT ISN'T HARD TO DO.

NOTHING TO KILL OR DIE FOR AND NO RELIGION, TOO.

IMAGINE ALL THE PEOPLE LIVING LIFE IN PEACE.

YOU MAY SAY I'M A DREAMER,
BUT I'M NOT THE ONLY ONE.

I HOPE SOME DAY YOU'LL JOIN US
AND THE WORLD WILL BE AS ONE.

IMAGINE NO POSSESSIONS.
I WONDER IF YOU CAN.

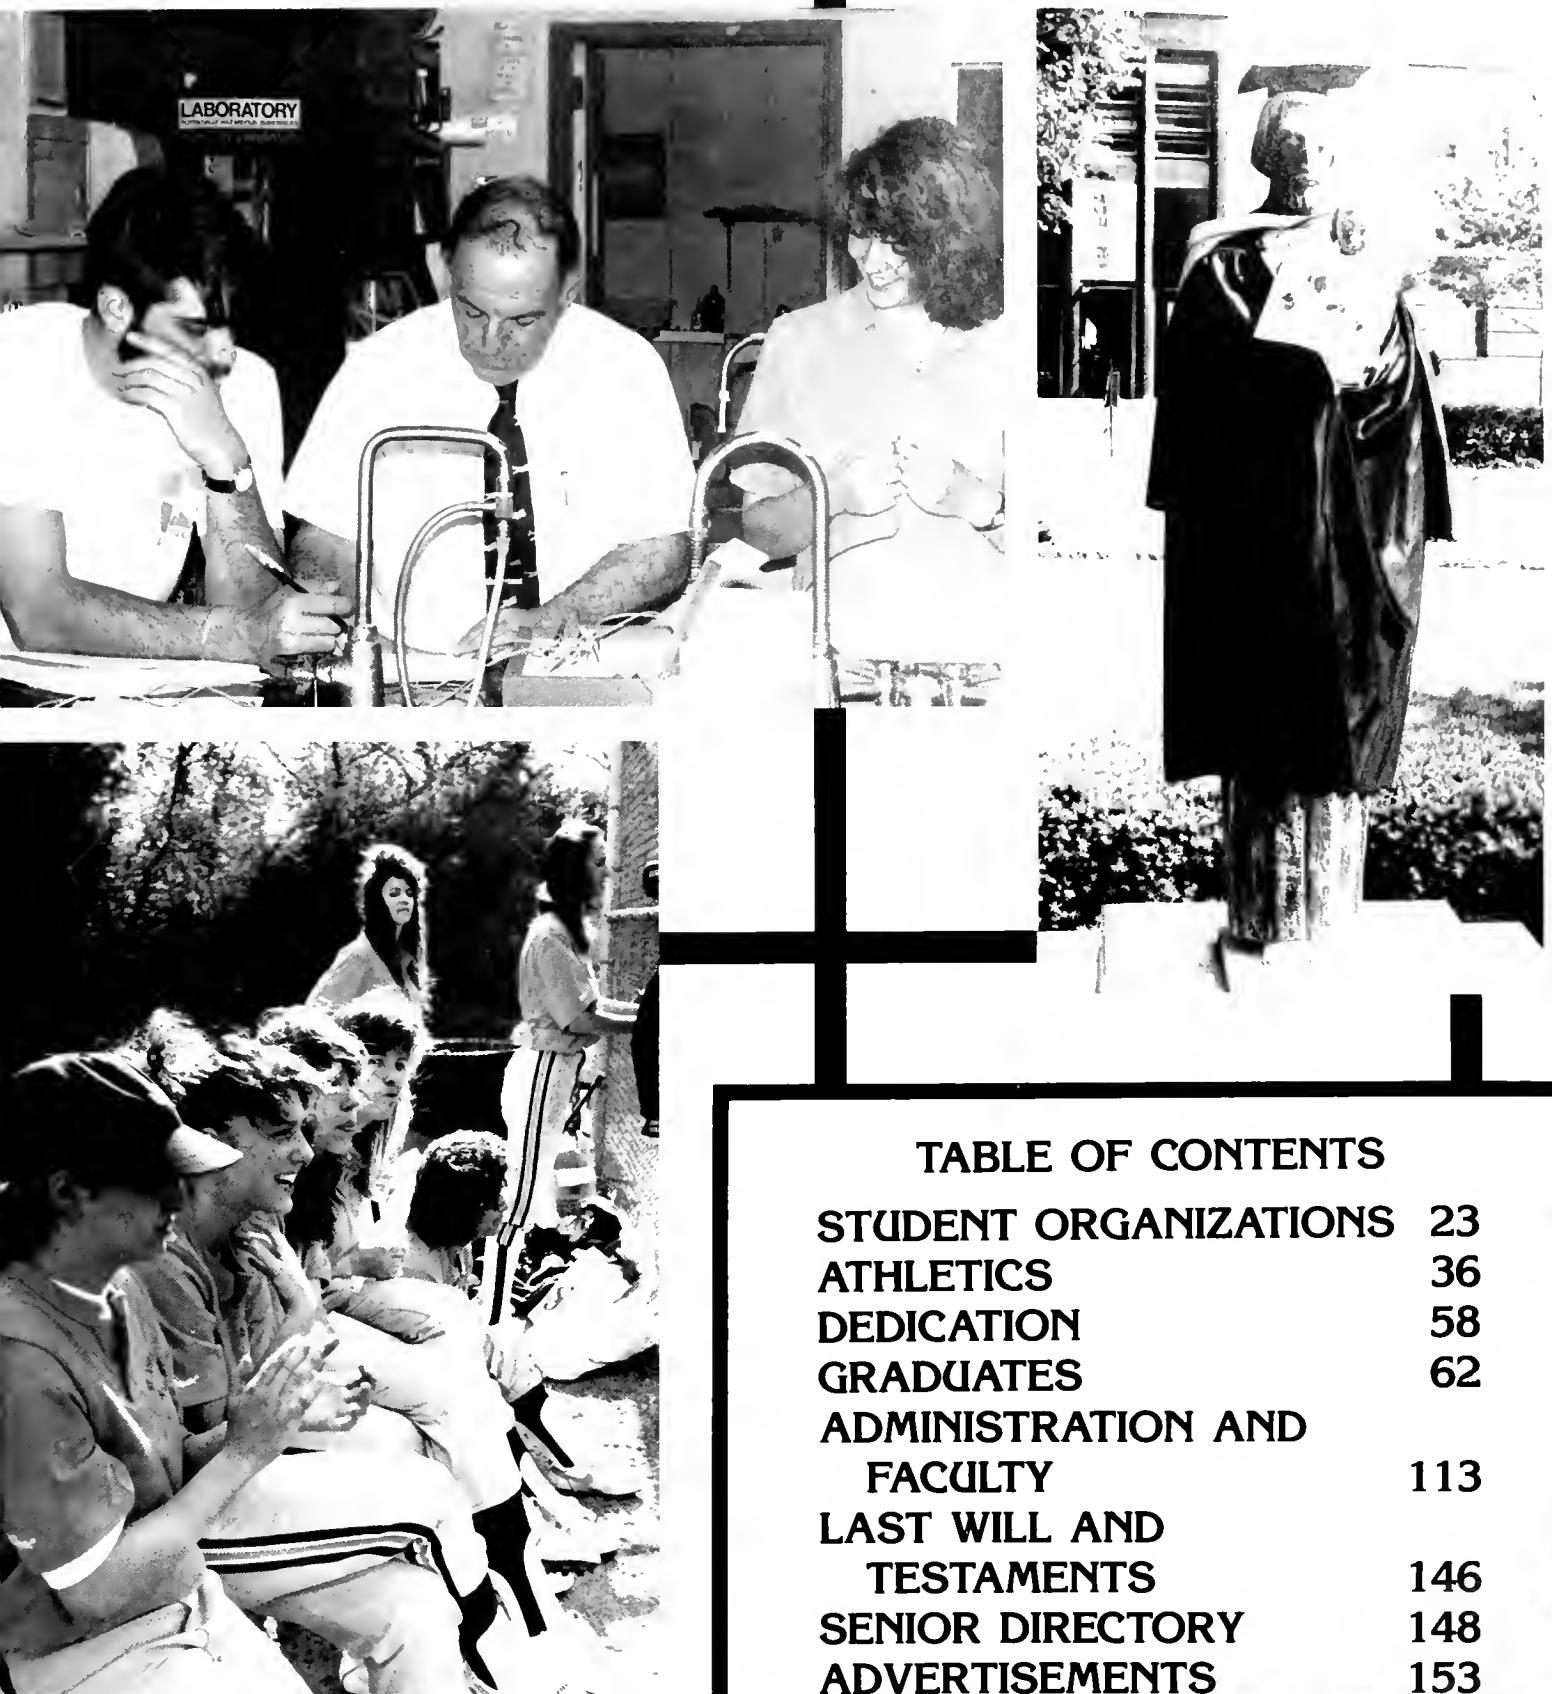

NO NEED FOR GREED OR HUNGER.
A BROTHERHOOD OF MAN.

IMAGINE ALL THE PEOPLE
SHARING ALL THE WORLD.

YOU MAY SAY I'M A DREAMER.
BUT I'M NOT THE ONLY ONE.

I HOPE SOME DAY YOU'LL JOIN US
AND THE WORLD WILL LIVE AS ONE.

IMAGINE ALL THE PEOPLE LIVING FOR TODAY

IMAGINE THERE'S NO
COUNTRIES:
IT ISN'T HARD TO DO.

Love your family as you love yourself.
Love your friends as you love your family.
Love a stranger as you love your friends and that stranger will be your friend,
your family, and a part of yourself.
And you will be a part of that stranger.
We are all part of the same world.
Each of us can end the hatred,
the prejudice,
the isolation,
and most of all,
the indifference.
Help make the dream come true and our
Idealism just may become the one true Reality.

NOTHING TO KILL OR DIE FOR

Students Hate

By Penny Palladino

Governor Mario Cuomo has proposed massive cuts to the New York State education budget for 1991-1992. Some cuts in the Bundy Aid alone can cost the college over $600,000 this coming fiscal year.

These proposed cuts will effect the students directly, be-

The Bundy Aid is a private college grant for the cost of tuition. It is important, however, that Cuomo prop-

GEMS OF WISDOM FROM THE ART DEPARTMENT

1. "The eyes hold images of the universe-not just the key to vision but also to the soul." Leonardo da Vinci
2. "to know how to see" - "semper videlic"
3. What can be truly seen can be truly understood.
4. There is a basic order or harmony that underlines all of the universe . . . as seen in natural things.
5. "We find the true self in its fullness when our love for what lies about and beyond us impels us to create." Gerald Vann
6. "Art is simply the skill and vision to make beautiful things." Gerald Vann
7. "Art isn't everything. It's just about everything." Attributed to Gertrude Stein
8. "What interests me most is neither still life nor landscape but the human figure. It is through it that I best succeed in expressing the nearly religious feeling that I have towards life." Henri Matisse
9. "In every new age there is a turning point, a new way of seeing and asserting the coherence of the world." Jacob Bronowski
10. Let us become appreciators of the masterpieces of art and develop a critical view towards good art.

GEMS OF WISDOM FROM THE CHILD STUDY DEPARTMENT

1. Only that person who has reached a high measure of maturity and integrity can offer life, hope, knowledge and skill to another human being.
2. Those who love teaching help others love learning.
3. Children are our best teachers.
4. If you are going to teach reading make sure you are a reading teacher.
5. You are the hope of future generations in our society.
6. Children cannot learn if they are physically hungry.
7. You can make a difference in the life of a child.
8. Recognize, accept and celebrate cultural differences.
9. Know, and then improve upon the past.
10. First be, then teach.

GEMS OF WISDOM FROM THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

1. The man that hath no music in himself
Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds
Is but fit for treasons, strategems, and spoils.
The motions of his spirit are dull as night,
And his affections dull as Erebus.
Let no such man be trusted. W. Shakespeare
2. If music be the food of love, I would have excess of it. Play on. W. Shakespeare
3. If you can't play it well, play it fast, play it loud.
4. One person's music can be another person's noise.
5. He without music in his soul is dead.
6. Where words leave off music begins.
7. Music is love in search of words.

GEMS OF WISDOM FROM THE PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

1. The unexamined life is not worth living. -SOCRATES
2. Then who are the philosophers, Diotima, said I, if those who seek after wisdom are neither the wise nor the ignorant? "That's clear enough even to a child," she answered: "they are those between the two, as love is. You see, wisdom is one of the most beautiful things, and love is a love for the beautiful, so love must be a philosopher, and being a philosopher, he must be between wisdom and ignorance. -PLATO
3. amor meus, pondus meus. - ST. AUGUSTINE
4. What can I know? What ought I know? What may I hope? -IMMANUEL KANT
5. Consequently, "will to truth" does not mean, "I will not allow myself to be deceived" but "I will not deceive, not even myself"; and with that we stand on moral ground. - NIETZSCHE
6. It is absolutely correct and proper to say that "You can't do anything with philosophy." It is only wrong to suppose that this is the last word on philosophy. For the rejoinder imposes itself: granted that we cannot do anything with philosophy, might not philosophy, if we concern ourselves with it, do something with us? - HEIDEGGER
7. . . . we have only one edition of the universe, unfinished, growing in all sorts of places, especially in the places where thinking beings are at work. - WILLIAM JAMES
8. Neither faith nor doubt can be eliminated from man as man. - PAUL TILLICH
9. . . . the symbol invites or gives rise to thought. - PAUL RICOEUR
10. Something wonderful has happened to me. I was caught up into the seventh heaven. There sat all the gods in assembly. By special grace I was granted the privilege of making a wish. "With thou," said Mercury, "have youth or beauty or power or a long life or the most beautiful maiden or any of the other glories we have in the chest? Choose, but only one thing." For a moment I was at a loss. Then I addressed myself to the gods as follows: "Most honorable contemporaries, I choose this one thing, that I may always have the laugh on my side." Not one of the gods said a word; on the contrary, they all began to laugh. From that I concluded that my wish was granted, and found that they knew how to express themselves with taste; for it would hardly have been suitable for them to have answered gravely: "Thy wish is granted." - KIERKEGAARD

GEMS OF WISDOM FROM THE RELIGIOUS STUDIES DEPARTMENT

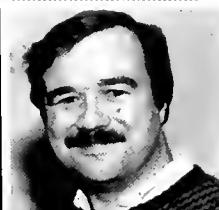

1. Glance at the sun. See the moon and the stars. Gaze at the beauty of earth's greenings. Now, think. What delight God gives humankind with all these things! Who gives all these shining, wonderful gifts, if not God? -Hildegard of Bingen
2. Are you contemplating how or what God is like? Everything you imagine, God is not. Everything you put together in thought, God is not. But if you wish to savor something of God, then know that God is love, the very same love by which we love. In loving, we know God better than we do the fellow human being whom we love. Much better, in fact, because God is nearer, more present, more certain, as Love. -Augustine
3. Scripture says, "They who abide in love abide in God and God in them" (1Jn.). Among human persons, the beloved is in a certain way in the lover and the lover is also drawn through affection into union with the beloved. Therefore it is clear that love sets up a real kind of friendship between human persons and God. - Aquinas
4. Wherever there is life there is silent worship, the world singing to its Creator. This comes to speech in human words. Human beings are the cantor of the universe in whose life the secret of cosmic prayer is disclosed. -Abraham Heschel
5. The universe is God's sanctuary. Every work day is a day of the Lord, every supper a Lord's supper, every work the fulfillment of a divine task, every joy a joy in God. - Paul Tillich
6. If some King of the Earth had such a large extent of dominion to North and South that he had Winter and Summer together in his kingdom; such an extent to East and West that he had day and night together in his kingdom - so much more does God have mercy and judgement together. He brought light out of darkness, not out of a lesser light. He can bring Summer out of your Winter, though you have no Spring; though you have been wintered and frozen, clouded and eclipsed, smothered and stupefied until now, - now God comes to you, not timidly as in the dawning of the day, but as the Sun at noon to lighten all shadows, as the sheaves in harvest to fill all want. All occasions invite His mercies, and all times are His seasons. -John Donne

BUT I'M NOT THE ONLY ONE

I HOPE SOME DAY YOU'LL JOIN US
AND THE WORLD WILL BE AS ONE

I HOPE SOME DAY YOU'LL
JOIN US
AND THE WORLD WILL LIVE
AS ONE

I, Ca, leave to R and E - Remember: flipped chick, Stevie B., Cancun, out to lunch, that Black Nissan and who's in it, getting gas at Hess, Port Jeff, long cut to the 5th. Precinct, fertility books, the instigators, Pond Scum, crumb cake, driving over the soccer field, Houlihan's, on patrol for Officer Kevin, give me the chic or the pic, the stripper, bowling, handcuffs, E. pushing the paper bag car, the male at Big and Tall Male, and ripping off a license plate.

I, Christopher Concannon, leave to Mom, Dad, my family, my friends, Rachael (my friend and companion always), some of the finest teachers, and my dogs and cats: thanks for your continuous support and guidance. You have taught me not only how to make a living but also how living has made me.

I, Denise Davour, send lots of love and hugs and kisses to: My parents whom I thank for all their love and support, My sister Renee whom I will be graduating with, My brother Jimmy who probably loved St. Joseph's more than Renee and I combined, And my boyfriend Rich whom I will always share fun memories with.

I, Renee Davour, leave: to Mom and Dad - thanks for giving me St. Joe's. Denise - for all the times we have shared on our car rides. Jimmy - for all the bags you packed for me. Rich - for being my best buddy. Brian - I love you always. Bio gang - a big hug.

I, David Driscoll, leave: To Phil - many tapes, a few shirts and a safety line for those late night escapades. And the best quote ever, "Who cares?". To Olive - a ski mask, knee pads and the tradition to be carried on and hopefully completed. To Pep - a spare key to the S10. To the Dude - a year's supply of wine coolers (1 case) and my skies, to be used wisely. To the Crusher - a term paper and the question what exactly is a Dinkleberry?. To the four now three - a container of visine and a pack of gum. And the hope that you guys will become captains some year, hell knows you deserve it. To Rob - an all expense paid trip to a Criminology convention with B. Morrell, one of the best teachers around. To Anthony - my chucka boots to follow my footsteps in. To my Mother, one of the most important people in my life, thanks for believing in me from the beginning.

I, Dee Ghazarian, leave to: Lori - hard work, frustration, pessimism, 1,000 hairclips, a shoulder to cry on, and the hope that someday we'll be teachers. Donna - memories of Chevy's Bennigans, blondness, and the hope that someday we'll have ankle bracelets and the ability to cook. Wendi - all my throw back guys!. Lisa M. - a new car and money to pay back her loans. Lucille - a classroom to do her thesis experiment in. My family - love and gratitude for putting up with me these last four years. Matthew - my undying love, three 'spare' rooms, and the encouragement and support he's given me over the last year and a half.

To Lancelot, the only person in my life who could hold it all together when, "the woods were burning." I, Guenivere, hereby leave you: long talks, infinity on a napkin, Raunchy drawings, a boring sandwich, extra mayo, Aristotle, a chicken sandwich, the Fag noise, and a special place in my heart that no one can ever take away.

I, Lori Hamilton, leave to: Dee - one turban squash, Chevy's, "Filene's Basement", Petunia Pig, gasoline, a hubcap, a drive around the block, all those nicknames, the anticipated barn fire!! and all the great laughs we've shared over ten years of friendship! Donna - one prize winning dictionary, one Belmont duck, fall leaves, a hair clip, an umbrella, a quarter, a "dogwood", Hell day, and alas the famous strawberry daiquiri! Wendi - all my throw back guys! Lucille - one classroom to do your thesis experiment in, rolled up sleeves, the invisible visual aid, B-I-R-D, and Howard's. Kirsten - all my Psych notes, a bag of cheezdoodles, and a final chorus of "We're late!" Lisa - the Sunrise route and fresh vegetables.

I, Donna Krauss, leave to: Mom and Dad - all my thanks for the love and support you gave me over the past four years. Grandpa - a whole library full of "Big Band" tapes. Lucille - a new, used dictionary, a chunk of galena, Billy Bob, Nanny goats, yams, operas, a chorus of "I Wanna Be Sedated", "Ding, Ding, Ding", a career minus kids, and all of my best wishes to you and Rob! Lori - blue hawaiians, the "good bartender", sticky fingers, a bandaid for your knee, Mr. Gas Man, a lesson in how to pump gas, a tour guide to help you find your classes, a typewriter that requires no ribbon, expensive pens, and the best of luck in the future! (P.S. Don't worry - no more "Here's the story . . .") DeeAnnah - Wednesday nights at Waldbaums, Petunia Pig, a Mobil Gas Station, a life time free of Jill, a calorie filled ice cream sundae, nights at Chevy's, Lori's turban squash (I don't want it!), a hubcap that stays on your car, and a lifetime of fun and friendship! Keith - strawberry daiquiris, both red and white lights, a chorus of "Eminence Front" (It's a put on!), Al Bundy, your very own arcade, more communication talks, and most especially, my love! Thanks for all the times you made me laugh. Never forget - "Opposites attract!"

I, Elizabeth Kurosz, leave: To CK - Cancun 1990, Boys in Blue (they don't make good husbands), handcuffs, cop chasing, the 5th Precinct, Men in uniform, Nissan Pulsar, MR McDonald, MRS. B.M., "Oh he goes to this school, I didn't know that", yeah sure, "do me baby", "Romp at the Ramada", It's the man who makes the car, not the car who makes the man, Matt's butt, Cheech & Chong, L.I. Exchange, Joe, Rose, Hess gas station, full service, Stevie B, George LeMond, NYC, As we leave college leave Pine Scum too, IROC'S Dealer Plates (a screwdriver would help), no more Sal courses, instigator, I'll miss the lunches and talks, always wishing you the best, don't worry, Mr. Right will come, see ya Flipped Chick. To RM - Cancun 1990, a jeep with reverse that works, Stripper Bruce with a Big Red Bow, a ride on that motorcycle, LAW II, endless notes, wedding plans, Stevie B, George LeMond, NYC, Portugal, Instigator, no more Sal courses, It's the man who makes the car, not the car who makes the man, Frank M., always and forever, Best WISHES to the two of you, I'll miss the lunches and talks, that part of college was great, always wishing you the Best, see ya Flipped Chick.

I, Wendi McGrath, leave to: Lori H - stockings that will not rip and thermal underwear. Dee G - a replacement waitress for those early morning hours and lots of flannel board characters. Lisa M - a free chiropractor and gummy fish. Donna K - lots of space. Lucille T - a finished Junior Packet. Karen C - a blue sweater to offset your green wardrobe.

To C & E: To start with I want to tell you that the last three years have been fun, especially the last two. I want to wish you both the best of luck after graduation. "C", I want to leave you your own private bathroom considering all the complaints we hear now. I also want to leave you a lifetime gift certificate for McDonald's so that you visit your loved one. "E" I want to leave you a set of handcuffs so you can handcuff yourself to the Corvette. I also leave you a radar detector so that they don't take away your license because of your speeding. Love always, R

I, Lynn Potts, leave: To Michael Godek - our memories of yesterday and our dreams of tomorrow. May they never end! Your love inspires and encourages all I do. The best part of my life is having someone I love so much to share it with. I leave you my everlasting love - forever! To my wonderful Parents: I leave my undying appreciation and gratitude for all you have done for me, not only in my college years but throughout my entire life! "You are the wind beneath my wings!!" Love, your little girl.

I, Miriam Rappelt, leave to: Kev - One Hackensack truck driver (won't need him anymore), MY typing services for YOUR papers (or Novel), an honorary degree from SJC (CS major? God forbid!), lots of hugs and kisses, and thanks for being YOU. Jackie, my partner in crime - "that" (as in "I want . . ."), pregnant pumpkins, dirt bag schools, rain gear, sonar to track my location, 1,000 small red gowns for your very own theater, my love & thanks for your friendship. The Resistance - strength to keep raising hell in this maggot infested school. So long and thanks for all the fish. Sister Grace - the hope that you will someday be treated as graciously as you have treated my friends.

I, Rob Schwender, leave to: Melissa & Ann, two people who have been my friends from the beginning - memories, the best of luck and my friendship forever. Kevin - the Giants, Yankees, & Knicks & a volleyball. Dave - a different girl for each day of the week. Good luck. Pete - Leave you memories of me. Chris - a girlfriend. Thanks for the summer of '90. Pete - Leave you the seat next to you, let Lisa sit in it. The Guys - Memories of my attitude during Spring Flings. Freshman Girls Incoming - Sorry you will never get to meet me. Pete, Chris, Gary - Wanted Dead or Alive. Jeanette - Sorry I'm leaving, you'll do fine. Love you, Rob. Pete - free lunches.

I, Nancy Sullivan, leave: To my children who said, "what do you know, you never finished college," thus providing the impetus to return. To Debbie Whitehouse for taking the "sweat" out of those first classes. To Monica Brennan for making the quest fascinating. To Mark Hessler for putting effervescence into learning. To Tom Petriano for balancing my faith with reason. To all the St. Joe's people for the warm and caring atmosphere. To my husband for his support, spelling & suppers. It took thirty-one years & was worth every minute of it.
